

D*I*Y Planner v3.0 Getting Things Done Reference Package

*A personal note from Douglas Johnston, creator of the D*I*Y Planner:*

Getting Things Done (a.k.a., GTD) is a fabulous book by David Allen that has provided both methodology and motivation to millions of people (including myself), enabling them to lead more productive lives. As I consider this book to be the chief inspiration behind the D*I*Y Planner project, it is only right that we offer some quick reference charts for the purposes of reminder and meditation. I believe that these offer little benefit to anyone who has not read the book; if this includes you, and you find use in the D*I*Y Planner kits, I heartily recommend running to your local bookstore to purchase it. It may change your life.

A disclaimer: all ideas here are David Allen's, not mine. Thus, they are subject to being withdrawn without notice whenever Mr. Allen asks. Two diagrams are freely downloadable at the DavidCo website: the original GTD digram from the book; and the advanced workflow diagram designed by Scott Moehring. These are simply scaled and adjusted slightly to fit the pages of your planner. The colour diagram on pages 3-4 was created by me to include a few more concepts from the book (such as the weekly review), and in a format more suitable to the D*I*Y Planner kits.

The most recent version of this package, along with the rest of the printable template kits, can always be found at:

The DIYPlanner.com site also contains handbooks, how-to guides, documents and numerous articles that can help you make the most of your planner.
